

The Elf Who Didn't Believe in Children

By Sara Madden and Illustrated by Hayley Helsten

Student Activity Worksheet

Ages 5-9 (adaptable for older students)

PART 1: What Do You Believe In?

Flossy didn't believe in children at first.

But sometimes, we learn new things when we listen and look closely.

Activity:

Draw or write something you believe in.

It could be:

- Something you can see
- Something you feel
- Something you hope is true

I believe in:

Draw a picture to go with your idea:

[DRAWING SPACE]

PART 2: Big Feelings, Brave Thoughts

Flossy felt a lot of feelings in the story — curiosity, fear, doubt, and care.

Circle the feelings you noticed in the story:

- ☐ Curious
- ☐ Nervous
- ☐ Lonely
- ☐ Brave
- ☐ Kind
- ☐ Confused
- ☐ Hopeful

Now think about you:

One feeling I've had before is:

When I feel that way, it helps when:

PART 3: The Letter That Changed Everything

Flossy's life changed because of a letter.

Write or draw a letter:

You can write to:

- Someone who needs kindness
- Someone you miss
- Someone you want to encourage
- Or even yourself

My Letter:

PART 4: Belief Map

Some things we know.

Some things we wonder about.

Some things we learn over time.

Fill in the circles:

I know:

I wonder:

I'm learning:

PART 5: Design Your Own Elf

If you were an elf like Flossy...

My elf's name: _____

My elf wears: _____

My elf believes in: _____

My elf helps others by: _____

[DRAWING SPACE]

Reflection: One thing I learned from this story is:
